Repeats Policy On Aid

Question Is Raised About US Position In Light of Reports On Iraqi Activities

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles emphatically reasserted today that the United States would give aid within constitutional limits to any victim of aggression in the crisis ridden Middle East.

The question of the U.S. position was raised at a news conference in connection with reports of impending Iraqi troop movements into Jordan and consequent Israeli nervousness about possible new fighting in the area.

Syrian arms—which Dulles said could be Soviet or Western in origin—are already moving into Jordan.

Arab sources have said—and American officials support the explanation—that Jordan asked Iraqi troops to stabilize the government of King Hussein against collapse.

Israel took the position, however, that entry of Iraqi troops would violate the 1949 Palestine armistice and could lead to war.

On other matters:

1. In a statement, Dulles said last week's U.N. Security Council discussion of the Suez Canal controversy had resulted in "progress toward achieving a just and peaceful solution of the Suez crisis."

2. Dulles said he must reserve the right to edit the transcript of his news conferences even to the extent of changing the substance of what he said if, following a conference, he finds he has blundered in a manner which might jeopardize U. S. foreign relations. He took this position in response to reporters' questioning about past changes.

3. Dulles expressed confidence, in the face of criticism from Democratic candidate Adlai Stevenson, that the Eisenhower administration will find a way to bring the hydrogen bomb under effective control if such a way exists.

Implying that Stevenson has not fully understood what he was talking about in pressing for an end of H-bomb tests, Dulles said he doubted whether anyone not fully acquainted with the details of the problem could know what the best possible solution is.

4. Dulles said that he could not see why information about spending by Congress members who travel abroad should not be made public but that in the handling of government funds the State Department simply acts as an agent for Congress.

Therefore, he said, any information disclosed would have to come from congressional authorities. Dulles added that he was not personally informed about the uses of some of the funds involved in financing congressional expenses.

Attending the Chicago meeting from Sedalia was K. U. Love, business manager of The Democrat-Capital.

City Council Okays Airport Appointments

O'Connor, Robinson Fill Two Vacancies; Ordinances Passed

By D. KELLY SCRUTON

The City Council Monday night approved two appointments to the Sedalia Municipal Memorial Airport board presented by Mayor Julian H. Bagby. They were Mike O'Connor and Dr. David Robinson, who are to fill two unexpired terms.

The two men fill the vacancies left by Walter Jacobsen, who has moved away from Sedalia, and the late Capt. Tom Wilson, who died several weeks ago.

More than 50 Smith-Cotton High School students in the American Problems class were in attendance at the meeting as one of their school assignments to study the city form of government.

Five ordinances were given final passage by the Council. They were: letting the contract for paving with a rock base and seal coating of Hancock from 13th to 14th to the W. J. Menefee Construction Co.; approving and accepting curb and guttering on Herold from Highway 50 south 351 feet, constructed by W. A. Rayl and Son; approving and accepting curb and guttering of W. A. Rayl and Son on Sue Lane from Dennis Road north 381½ feet; for curb and guttering on Fifth from Limit to State Fair Blvd.; and approving and accepting hot mixed asphalt paving of Stewart from 16th to 12th.

Councilman Dr. Ira White reported his committee had not yet met to establish certain street lights in the DeJarnette addition, the proposal to be submitted to the council.

Several letters from City Engineer E. V. Bishop on approving and accepting various projects of curb and guttering and also paving were read and placed on file by the Council.

Two zoning ordinances presented to the Council on recommendation of the City Planning and Zoning Commission were read for the first time. They were changing the zoning of property on the southeast corner of 16th and Osage from R-3 dwelling to C-1 commercial, requested by Edgar F. Blakely, and changing the northwest corner of Engineer and Broadway from R-3 to C-1, requested by the Standard Oil Co.

Bids were opened on two paving projects, the first for paving with a rock base to be primed and seal coated, on West Second from Gentry to State Fair Blvd., and the other for the same type of pavement for Warren from Fourth to Broadway.

W.A. Rayl and Son were low bidders for curb and guttering on West Second from Gentry to State Fair Blvd., at $1.54, while the J. W. Atkinson Construction Co., bid was $1.55 per lineal foot. The engineer's estimate was $1.70. An ordinance letting the contract to the low bidder was introduced.

The low bidder on the Warren Avenue project was the W. J. Menefee Construction Co., which bid $1.33 a square yard. The Schroder Construction Co. bid $1.40. The engineer's estimate was $1.37.

An ordinance was read changing the reading of a previous ordinance and making the necessary

Stratocruiser Waits 3 Hours For Daylight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A big Pan American plane was forced down on the Pacific Ocean today and broke in half, but the Coast Guard rescued the 31 persons within minutes.

Coast Guard statements moments before said 32 were rescued, but this was quickly revised and 31 is the latest official total.

The stratoscruiser, en route from Honolulu to San Francisco, was forced to ditch about 1,000 miles southwest of San Francisco because of trouble in two of its four engines.

The plane was ditched by Pilot Richard Ogg at 8:16 a. m. PST., and sank in 21 minutes, the Coast Guard reported.

"All survivors rescued," said a reassuring message from the weather ship Pontchartrain. Nobody was seriously injured, but five persons suffered minor injuries, a message said.

The Pan American crew, trained for such emergencies, apparently got the passengers into lifeboats. "Four rafts in water," the Pontchartrain messaged soon after the plane went down.

The 31 survivors will be brought to San Francisco aboard the destroyer Johnson.

The Johnson was en route from Honolulu to the ditched plane, about 1,000 miles southwest of San Francisco, when it received orders to take the survivors from the Coast Guard vessel, the Pontchartrain.

Capt. Walter C. Capron, acting commander of the 12th Coast Guard District in San Francisco, said the Johnson would rendezvous with the Pontchartrain about 5 p. m. (PST) today.

The Johnson, traveling at about 17 knots, will take about three days to reach San Francisco.

Col. Clarence M. Young, vice president of Pan American World Airways, praised Ogg today for staying over the Coast Guard weather ship.

"The captain had the decision to make as to whether to continue toward San Francisco on two engines, with the possibility of having to land in the water before arrival," Young said in a statement.

"His decision to remain in the vicinity of the Coast Guard watch ship November was obviously a wise one."

At Honolulu, the 14th Naval District congratulated the Coast Guard ship Pontchartrain for rescuing all 31 persons from a ditched ship.

"Conducted like a bunch of champions. Well done."

Trouble with two of the plane's four engines caused the mishap.

From San Francisco a seaplane was to leave shortly with a rescue doctor aboard. The Coast Guard said it would take the plane about six hours to reach the scene.

Pilot Ogg had awaited for daylight to set his plane down on a rather quiet sea.

County Agent Says Much of Corn Crop May Have Grain Moth

It now looks as though much of the corn in the state will come in from the field infested with anguinous grain moth, Merle Vaughan, Pettis County agent, said today. This is the moth that works inside the kernel and makes the holes in the grain commonly blamed on weevils.

Damage is always worst in corn stored in the ear, he said. If shelled, only the top few inches will be infested, but the moths will work throughout a crib of ear corn. To make matters worse, there is no way a slat crib of ear corn can be successfully fumigated.

The use of a grain protectant, applied as the corn is cribbed, seems to be the best bet in protecting against this insect, Vaughan said. Either powdered or liquid protectants can be used, but if thoroughly applied, indications are the liquid protectants are somewhat best. "Although neither the liquid nor powdered protectants are as good as we would like to have," the county agent said, "they are the best available at the present time. Costs will run up to about 2½ cents per bushel."

Policemen's Checks Disappear at Station

NEW YORK (AP)—Detectives at Manhattan's West 152nd Street police station are doing their detecting right in the office. Eight patrolmen's pay checks totaling $1,294 disappeared in the stationhouse.

Two Wrecks On Tuesday; No One Hurt

One Car Rolls Over, Hits Telephone Pole; Other Does Nosedive

Two serious accidents occurred in the area today in which occupants of both mishaps escaped with minor hurts; but one car involved in the one-car crashes was listed as "extensively damaged."

Shortly after midnight Monday, a 1949 Chevrolet sedan missed the first curve north of LaMonte on Highway 127 and crashed into a telephone pole. The car was driven by Sgt. Frederick N. Loring, 28, Whiteman AFB, who escaped injury.

A-2c Donald J. Smith, 20, also of Whiteman, suffered a cut on his left cheek which took four stitches to close. He was treated at the base hospital.

Loring told Trooper Pete Stohr he was headed for Sweet Springs and driving about 45 miles per hour and didn't see the curve. The car went to the edge of the north shoulder of the curve and, when he pulled it back, the car rolled, crashing into the pole.

A section of about ten feet of the pole snapped off and was thrown more than 30 feet against a fence row, a three-inch section was crumpled beneath the car, and the pole was snapped off below the surface of the ground. There was still about three feet of pole on which the cross bars of the pole were fastened which dangled from the wires on the ground.

Smith was strumming on a guitar when the accident occurred and it was crushed and broken in two.

The vehicle was towed to Sedalia by the Chamberlin wrecker. Alonzo F. Moon, 45, Hughesville, escaped with minor hurts when his 1956 Buick sedan flipped over on its top a mile north of Sedalia on Highway 65 about 11:50 a. m. Tuesday.

Moon told State Trooper Pete Stohr of the State Patrol he was headed north enroute to his home and started to pull out to pass a truck. He reported the truck pulled out and he was forced to take to the shoulder on the west side of the highway. In applying the brakes, it appeared as if the left front wheel locked and threw him into the ditch. The car nosed into the slight embankment, shot end over end in the air and landed on its top nearly 40 feet from where it first hit the embankment.

Noah P. Taylor, 29, Harrison, Ark., driver of the truck, said a car had slowed down in front of him to make a turn to the right, and he did not see the car coming from the back. The truck is owned by Sav-A-Stop at Harrison.

Herbert Richardson who resides in the farm on the east side, said a car had slowed to make the turn into his driveway.

Wanted: Moderation

So far the only moisture we've seen since the few spatters last week was some fog early Tuesday. But Texas and Florida were overwhelmed by rain in some areas. Where's that happy medium?

Continued fair with little change in temperature tonight and Wednesday; low tonight in mid-50s; high Wednesday in lower 80s.

The temperature at 7 a. m. was 55; 81 at 1 p. m. and 82 at 2 p. m. Low Monday was 54.

The temperature one year ago today, high 62, low 34; two years ago, high 61, low 36; and three years ago, high 85, low 57.

Stage at Lake of the Ozarks 53.3 feet, down one-tenth of a foot.

Iowa Youth Is Named Champion FFA Orator

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Jim Borthwick, 17, of College Springs, Iowa, is the champion orator of the Future Farmers of America.

Borthwick won the $150 first prize last night over four opponents at the national speech contest which opened the FFA convention.

In his speech, Borthwick said the average farm has "twice as much investment per man as industry has," or about $40,000 to $50,000 in land, buildings and machinery.

Lloyd Dubroff, 17, Altha, Fla., placed second; Robert Viduya, 16, Hawaii, third; Frederick Harrington, 18, Essex Junction, Vt., fourth; Roy Chapin, Perrydale, Ore., fifth.

Democrats Hold Rally At Smithton

The Democratic Party held a rally at the Smithton High School Monday evening, and entertainment was furnished by the high school band. After the band concert, the meeting was called to order by Harold Barrick, candidate for prosecuting attorney, who presented the candidates.

Barrick then introduced John McCloskey, county chairman, who made the principal address. McCloskey stated that it was his belief that the Democratic Party had the strongest ticket in its history, in the nation, the state and the county.

"We do not have the money of the large corporations to pour into the elections, but we have what is far more important, we have people, people of stature who are carrying the banners of our party to victory in November," McCloskey said. "Turning to the local scene, I want to point out that we have under the leadership of the Democrat members of the county court, kept our political promises."

Referring specifically to the matter of the operation of the highway department and the county fire department, the speaker said, "We have had sufficient savings in the highway department to pay for the establishment of fire protection, and Smithton, even though it has its own fire service, is entitled to protection at any time needed. All you have to do is call Sedalia for the county fire truck, and in less than a minute they are on their way to protect your property."

"We have a good county ticket, and our office holders have served us all well and are entitled to reelection," concluded the speaker.

After the program, refreshments were served by the members of the PTA.

MoPac Reorganization Is Near Completion

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The reorganization of the Missouri Pacific Railroad after 23 years of bankruptcy has been "fully and properly carried out and put into effect."

This statement by Federal District Judge George H. Moore yesterday came in his order discharging the reorganization managers. He explained they have "fulfilled their function and have no further duties."

The new officers of the company took control last March 1. "Proper and adequate arrangements," Judge Moore noted, have been made for the still continuing task of exchanging and surrendering securities.

Under the reorganization many corporate entities were merged into one firm. Representing this group of investment interests as reorganization managers were Walter H. Brown Jr., T. C. Davis, Walter H. Fincke, Isaac B. Grainger and A. Frederick Keuthen.

Toll of Japan Train Wreck Rises to 38

TSU, Japan (AP)—The death of two young students today raised to 38 the toll in the collision of a speeding express train and a local carrying high school boys and girls on a holiday.

Twenty-three of the dead and 20 of the 35 injured were among the 99 students from two high schools on an excursion to Ise shrine.

National railway officials said the tangled wreckage of four locomotives and 20 passenger cars would not be cleared for many hours.

The wreck occurred shortly after dark last night. The local was derailed while being sidetracked and two cars toppled into the path of the Nagoya-bound express. Tsu is about 200 miles southwest of Tokyo.

Congressman Makes Remark-- Says Ike Favors Jailing Violators of Desegregation

NEW YORK (AP)—Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-NY) says President Eisenhower told him he favored jailing anyone who disobeyed the Supreme Court decision to desegregate schools.

In Washington, the White House withheld comment. James C. Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, said there would be no comment until he had a chance to see the full text of Powell's remarks.

Powell, a Negro from Harlem, visited the President at the White House last week and afterward endorsed the President for reelection.

Powell told of his visit at an Eisenhower rally in Harlem Saturday night. His remarks, as transcribed by CBS and presented in part on a filmed news show

Sunday night, included the following passage:

"I asked Mr. Eisenhower if I could see him, and on Thursday I saw him at the White House. I then said to the President:

"Mr. President, in the event that a school district refused to obey that decision of the federal court what do you advocate?"

"He (Eisenhower) said: 'Mr. Powell, I advocate that the federal court shall get federal marshals, swear in deputies if they need them, go out and arrest anyone who refuses to obey their orders, bring them before the court, try them for contempt, and, if they're guilty, put them in prison.'"

"I (Powell) said 'that's what we want up in Harlem and I thought that's what you wanted.'"

To Be Held Saturday--

Scout Troops of Ozarks Council To Hold Show at Fair Coliseum

The Coliseum at the Missouri State Fair will be the setting for an interesting and colorful show when units from the entire Lake of the Ozarks Council Boy Scouts of America, will present Scouting as it actually is from the Cub Scouts on up. The show will be held Saturday, Oct. 20, from 2 to 4 p. m. and from 7 to 9 p. m., and the boys are now selling tickets to their big exhibition.

If there is any question as to what Boy Scouts do at their meetings, then this is the place to find out. The boys will literally move their meetings to booths in the coliseum, where they will demonstrate their skills.

One of the most fascinating arts will be presented by Troop 41 of Slater. This troop will have two booths some distance apart and will signal messages to each other, the one booth signaling when someone attending is at the booth, and at the other booth that person may have the message repeated to him.

Pack 58, sponsored by Sacred Heart Church, Sedalia, will demonstrate puppeteering. This is the theme for October.

First aid techniques will be demonstrated by Troops 150 sponsored by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and Troop 151, sponsored by St. Patrick's Catholic Church. These are Sedalia troops.

Troop 66, sponsored by the First Christian Church, Sedalia, will erect a signal tower, and Troop 69, St. Paul's Lutheran, Sedalia, will have a trailing booth with trail signs and will demonstrate how to follow a trail.

A good demonstration of cooking will be given by Troop 42 of Marshall, and Troop 65, sponsored by the Broadway Presbyterian Church, Sedalia, will have on display the different types in miniature of rustic bridges and of fires.

Indiancraft will be exhibited by Troop 57, sponsored by the Immanuel Evangelical and Reformed Church, Sedalia.

The Council includes sponsoring institutions from more than 11 counties and other communities represented so far besides Sedalia are Marshall, Slater, Jefferson City, Tipton, Chamois and Smithton.

In addition, the Girl Scouts Council will have a booth. The Boy Scout Council will have several interesting booths, one on Philmont, located in New Mexico, where really rugged scouting is done and one on the Jamboree to be held at Valley Forge in 1957.

Scout distributors will also show Scout equipment.

Capt. K. K. Johnson is the camping and activities chairman of the Council, and Roy Kline is district camping and activities chairman. The show is part of the activities program.

Girl Scouts in uniform will be

Peiping Radio Claims 160 Deaths in Riots

HONG KONG (AP)—Peiping radio claimed today that more than 160 persons died in the three days of rioting and factional fighting that wracked Hong Kong's mainland territory last week.

The Hong Kong government has officially set the death toll at 51. The government information office said after the Peiping broadcast it saw "no reason to change this figure."

The curfew clamped on Kowloon Peninsula and the mainland New Territories was lifted completely this morning. Police reported quiet throughout the colony. More than 3,000 persons have been arrested and more than 1,000 already have been arraigned for rioting and violating the curfew.

admitted free, as will Boy Scouts and registered developer Scouters.

A few activities will take place during the evening, also, with the opening ceremony, to be by Ship 13, Jefferson City.

At 7:30 Troop 1, Jefferson City, will do Indian dances; at 8 o'clock Julius Stohr, Council organization chairman, will recognize all new Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and explorer Scouts since the start of the program, and at 8:30 awards will be given to the boy selling the most tickets and for the booths.

The program will close at 9 o'clock.

Troops Won't Enter Jordan--

Tension Drop on Both Sides Of Israeli-Jordan Border

JERUSALEM (AP)—Tension subsided somewhat on both sides of the Jordan-Israeli border today after a report Iraqi troops will not enter Jordan at this time.

The report, carried in the Amman newspaper Al Jihad, helped clear the atmosphere in Amman. War fears had mounted in the Jordan capital after Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion warned Israel reserved the right of freedom of action if Iraqi troops crossed into the neighboring Arab kingdom.

Al Jihad said that during Monday's talks in Amman between Jordan's King Hussein and Iraq's Crown Prince Abdul Illah, agreement was reached that the Iraqi troops would stay just outside Jordan's borders but would join Hussein's forces in the event of Israeli aggression.

A palace official in Amman said a joint communique on the Jordan-Iraq talks would be issued in Amman and Baghdad tonight.

Earlier, Iraqi plans to send about 3,000 troops to strengthen Jordan's government against collapse reportedly had Western approval. The United States and Britain were said to feel the Iraqis would serve as a stabilizing influence during countrywide elections next Sunday.

Israel, however, saw the move as a direct threat to her.

It also caused alarm in Egypt, where officials appeared to view such action as an Iraqi attempt to take over Egypt's kingpin position in the Arab world. Salah Salem, President Nasser's former propaganda minister, accused Iraqi Premier Nuri Said of engineering a plot to occupy Jordan.

Israel remained in readiness and ordered air raid sirens tested in Tel Aviv and the six surrounding communities. But the war fears eased at the report the Iraqi troops would not move closer.

In his speech to Parliament yesterday, Ben-Gurion said Israel is not eager to fight the Arabs. But, he added, "If we are attacked, we shall fight them with all our strength to the end—and that means until victory."

Blaming Jordan and Egypt mainly for the long series of Arab-Israeli border clashes, he called anew for arms from the United States.

Wants Better Teachers--

Hennings Sees Need for Big Scale Federal School Aid

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Sen. Hennings (D-Mo.) said today he's convinced federal aid to education must be on a massive scale, "such as no Republican national administration would attempt."

He told Harris Teachers College students that federal aid must include millions of dollars for more and better qualified teachers.

"School buildings aren't enough," he said. "Education starts when a good teacher begins to talk to a pupil of any age, and the little one-room rural school house which many of our ancestors knew produced many a finely educated adult."

"Those schools, of course, are not sufficient for our scientific age, but neither are schools in which a large number of teachers haven't had the proper amount of education themselves to do the jobs they are hired to do."

Hennings said the shortage of teachers is increasing at the rate of 50,000 a year and thousands of over-crowded classrooms in many parts of the country today are called to order each day by teachers with "emergency certificates" only.

Property taxes cannot possibly meet today's educational bills, he said.

Last night Hennings in a speech before a Democratic rally said the nation is losing the struggle for men's minds and is "no longer counted on as a foe of colonialism and a friend to rising new nations."

He called for the establishment in this country of an international university for young Asians and Africans, now training in Russia.

Russia uses the Lenin Institute at Moscow, Hennings said, to train young Asians and Africans "as Communist missionaries, to go back to their homelands and build new Communist commonwealths."

Ordinance for paving and seal-coating of Prospect from Tenth to 20th was introduced.

The following ordinances approving and accepting work were read for the first time: curb and guttering by W. A. Rayl and Son of Griffith from Highway 50 to Kay; three ordinances on alley paving with a hot mixed asphalt between Main and Second, and between Third and Fourth, and between Seventh and Broadway, from Massachusetts to Kentucky; paving with a road base and a hot mixed asphalt pavement by the W. J. Menefee Construction Co., West 11th from State Fair Blvd. west 212 feet, Sue Lane from 11th to Albert Lee, Herold from 11th south to Margaret Ave. and west 400 feet, Herold from Highway 50 south to Kay, Albert Lee from Herold to Sue Lane, Griffith from Highway 50 to Kay and Sue Lane from Dennis Road north 300 feet; and paving with a rock base, primed and seal-coated, Beacon from Broadway south to 16th.

Application of W. E. Bingham for Bing's Market, 11th and Limit, to sell package beer was approved.

Councilman Aubrey Case read two petitions of residents on both sides of 14th Street from Beacon to Warren requesting curb and guttering to be built under private contract. The Council approved the request of both petitions, the work to be done under the supervision of the city engineer.

Women's Association Plans Annual Supper

The Women's Association of the Green Ridge Presbyterian Church held its regular meeting at the church all day Thursday, Oct. 11. The Esther Circle served the contributive dinner at noon.

The president, Mrs. A. M. Kendrick, conducted the business meeting at two o'clock, during which plans were completed for the Fall Presbyterian meeting to be held at the Green Ridge Presbyterian Church Oct. 16.

The date for the annual chicken pie supper and bazaar was set for Nov. 16. Mrs. L. H. Wadleigh was appointed chairman of the bazaar and Mrs. Earl Hinken, chairman of the chicken pie supper.

Mrs. Edna Ryan was in charge of the program, "The Whole Life or World Revolution." She was assisted by the following: Mrs. L. B. Shaw, Mrs. W. L. Brown, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Dennis Brownfield, Mrs. Gertrude Helman, Mrs. L. H. Wadleigh, Mrs. Nell Ream and Mrs. Earl Hinken. Mrs. Floyd Egbert sang a solo.

The day was spent in preparing the church for Presbyterian and quilting. They also set the Hourglass quilt blocks together.

LaMonte Garden Club Has Guest Speaker

The LaMonte Garden Club met Oct. 9 in the home of Mrs. Edna Martin with nine members and one visitor, Miss Enid Johnson, present.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. C. A. DeHaven. Mrs. J. L. Lindaman and Mrs. DeHaven told of attending the Federated Garden Club meeting in Sedalia.

Miss Johnson gave an interesting talk on flowers which she dealt with while she was in China. The hostess served refreshments.

Builders Class Holds Installation Ceremony

The Builders Class of the Wesley Methodist Church held an installation banquet Tuesday, Oct. 9, in the church basement. The tables were decorated with a Halloween theme and candles. The centerpiece was a large pumpkin filled with yellow and copper chrysanthemums.

The guest speaker was the Rev. Hugh Jones, Linn Creek. Toastmaster was Dick Cummings. Community singing was led by Mrs. Tom Lindsey, who also sang a solo.

After a short talk by the outgoing president, Mrs. Ray Rodick, the new officers were installed in a candlelight ceremony by the Rev. Lee F. Soxman. Officers are: Mrs. John Marquess, president; Mrs. Van VanDerEnt, vice-president; Mrs. David Eisenstein, secretary; and Miss Minnie Kuhn, treasurer.

The next class meeting will be Tuesday, Oct. 16, with a pot luck supper at 6:30 in the church basement.

Houstonia WSCS Meets

The WSCS, Houstonia, met on Thursday with a covered dish dinner at the Tevebaugh home. There were 17 present. The program in the morning was the beginning of the book on Southeast Asia. Mrs. C. F. Wicker was leader and the members took part in the discussion. After a delicious dinner the president Mrs. Hall Walk presided.

An announcement was made of the district meeting at Clinton

Campaign Of Superlatives...

We are in another season of political promises, highly seasoned beyond need in this current period of dryness. Candidates for public office are stumping the nation. The outs are eager to get in and the ins are determined to stay.

Adlai Stevenson, the man Harry Truman dislikes, has adopted the latter's give 'em hell technique. A suspicion arises that the Truman-Stevenson friction preceding and during the Democratic convention was a set-up to make it appear Adlai had shaken Harry off his back, whereas Truman is ghost-writing the script for the party's political charge of the light brigade against the Republicans.

All this nonsense about Stevenson's ability to abolish poverty in the United States — if he gets in — sure twangs the heart strings. And as a stalwart defender of the people who is running out of mob-inciting issues, the latest is a contradiction — that of abolishing the draft and stopping experimentation on the H-bombs. Stevenson certainly must be a sucker to have such confidence in the Russians going along with us honestly on such a proposal. Did Stevenson read that the Soviet on another world issue — Suez — cast her 78th veto in the National Security Council this week? How are you going to deal with people like that by letting your guard down on national security which is so dependent on continued nuclear scientific research.

Kefauver is rushing the Halloween season in his race for the vice-presidency impugning that Nixon is trying to get into the White House "by false premises, false front and a false face."

Both Stevenson and Kefauver are vociferous in telling the people what they will have the government do for them if elected in November. They will be all things to all people. The flying saucers will be full of pie in the sky. Under a government led by these two men poverty would be abolished?

But before one gets carried away with enthusiasm by all things political candidates promise to have the government do for us, it might be well to consider what made this country what it is as a yard stick in making a choice between candidates.

Most of the social and economic gains in this country have come from efforts and initiative of the individual and not from government planning. Without the work of the individual, we would be living under a feudal system that allowed only bare subsistence.

Don't forget it — the accomplishments of the individual have lifted this country to present levels, not the accomplishments of government. American progress is rooted in individual freedom.

Stevenson and Kefauver promise to bring about an age of abundance, New Freedom, New Peace (haven't we got it now?), in exchange for an Age of Uncertainty (when employment has never been higher). How will this Utopia be brought about? Why by the government? Which means more encroachment on individual freedom.

Before we go trading off individual freedom for some Deal, which as yet has not been labeled New or Fair, let's start judging those candidates who would bring about a society where "do-all" government would reduce the individual to the status of a statistic.

Edson In Washington--

Adlai's Holdings May Have Hit Million

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON—Both Dwight D. Eisenhower and Adlai E. Stevenson can be rated as millionaires, or at least near-millionaire, candidates for president this year.

In their 1952 campaign, these same two opponents listed their earnings over the previous 10 years. Both listed capital assets then estimated to be worth half a million dollars or more.

Assuming their investments have realized the capital gains and increases of value of stock averages over the past four years, the two candidates could easily be worth a million apiece today.

The 1952 publicity on the candidates' financial position ended the controversy about this issue at the time. But now it is being revived. Four times during the 1956 campaign Republican orators have called Stevenson "the millionaire candidate... Some, add, "with a hole in his shoe."

No less an Eisenhower administration official than Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield made the accusation that "Stevenson trades in Wall Street, yet says he is for the little man."

Four years ago Stevenson listed some 25 companies in which he held common stock. He also listed a few preferreds and government bond issues. His income tax returns showed an average annual income from dividends of $35,000 before taxes. He had $28,000 after taxes.

It has recently been revealed by Stevenson's sons in a Collier's magazine article, however, that, "Most of Dad's income is from his one-quarter share of the Bloomington, Ill. Daily Pantagraph, the newspaper which his mother's family founded, and from his law practice, when he has time to practice. But the expense of keeping up the house and the farm, putting us through college, and his personal costs of campaigning are high."

This important disclosure is taken to mean that if most of Stevenson's income is from his newspaper holding, that's where most of his capital is. No facts are available on the newspaper's capital worth or its earnings or dividend rates.

In his Wall Street holdings, if Stevenson has done as well as the Dow Jones or New York Times composite stock averages, he could be worth 70 per cent more today than he was four years ago. Investor Stevenson could have done better and he might have done worse.

Assuming that he now holds the same stocks that he listed in 1952—which is highly unlikely—some of his investments would show handsome profits through stock dividends and splits.

Aluminum Co. of America has shown a 554 percent gain in the four years. Dresser Industries 330 per cent. Electric Boat, now a part of General Dynamics, 788 per cent. General Portland Cement 368 per cent. Hilton Hotels, 277 per cent. Joy Mfg. Co., 299 per cent. Phillips Petroleum, 157 per cent. Rotary Electric Steel 198 per cent. and Standard Oil of New Jersey, 176 per cent.

Stevenson had some turkey, too. His Admiral Corp. has shown a seven per cent drop since 1952. Burlington Mills, now Burlington Industries, is down 28 per cent. Industrial Rayon is down 30. Early in 1953 Stevenson is known to have sold off some of his bad stocks in the recession of that period. He commented wryly at the time on what Republican prosperity was doing to him.

But the market recovered, of course, and went on to new highs. The average price of the stocks listed by Stevenson in 1952 was $37.21 per share. The average price as of Sept. 17, 1956, was $74.08 — almost exactly double.

If Stevenson's $35,000 average annual income from dividends represented six per cent average earnings, his invested capital can be estimated at $572,000. If this has increased in value 70 per cent it is $972,000 today. If he has doubled his investment, he is over the million mark.

Stevenson's Financial Position

Republican campaign orators like Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York refer to Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois as "the millionaire Democratic candidate" — made rich by Eisenhower prosperity.

In 1952 Stevenson and Eisenhower both made public a list of their financial earnings in the previous 10 years. This is his list of stocks, with its 1951 and 1956 prices. If he retained them all, it is possible he has doubled his investment.

The average 1951 price of these stock was $37.21 per share. The average price Sept. 17, 1956, was $74.08 per share, a 100 per cent gain. But no consideration is given to stocks possibly sold, reinvestments, nor of changed quantities of various stocks held, which would influence gains and losses.

The World Today--

Adlai Isn't Clear on H-Bomb Proposal

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON — Adlai Stevenson, who spends a lot of time polishing his speeches, sometimes takes the shine off them by dancing around the subject instead of saying in plain language precisely what he means.

This happened with his suggestions on ending H-bomb tests. Last night, after months of talking about it, he made a long speech, trying to explain what he had in mind. It still isn't completely clear.

He's been all over the lot on this subject. President Eisenhower has said Stevenson made several proposals. Stevenson blames the administration for "astounding distortions" of what he said.

In trying to understand him, this was the trouble: Was he suggesting the United States end its tests, with or without agreement with Russia to do the same, and then resume the tests if Russia didn't follow suit? Or was he suggesting this country take the lead in proposing an end to the tests but not ending them unless there was agreement?

A look at the chronology of his statements shows why these questions arise:

Last April 21 he said: "I believe we should give prompt and earnest consideration to stopping further tests of the hydrogen bomb... As a layman I question the sense in multiplying and enlarging weapons of a destructive power already incomprehensible.

"Of course, I would call upon other nations to follow our lead, and if they don't, and persist in further tests, we will know about it and we can reconsider our policy."

Nowhere in that statement did he say the United States should go it alone, if necessary, and end the H-bomb tests, although it might seem he meant that since he didn't mention a need for agreement with Russia to end her tests.

Before the American Legion convention in Los Angeles Sept. 5 he said:

"I regret that the administration chose to casually dismiss my proposal last spring to halt further testing of large nuclear devices, conditioned upon adherence by the other atomic powers to a similar policy."

That would seem to mean that this country should stop the tests only if others agreed to do likewise.

Then on Sept. 20, at Silver Spring, Md., he said Eisenhower had "dismissed curtly" his proposal "that the United States take the lead in promoting curtailment by all nations of hydrogen bomb tests."

The phrase "promoting curtailment" could mean the United States should take the lead simply in trying to get agreement on ending the tests or it could mean the United States should take the lead in ending the tests, with or without agreement.

Dr. Jordan Says--

Spitting In Public Vulgar, Dangerous, Filthy, Ugly

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

Many of the people who suffer most from, and complain most bitterly about, the common cold and similar respiratory disorders, are themselves the worst offenders when it comes to spreading germs or viruses to others.

Thoughtlessness in frequenting public places when in the middle of a bad cold is all too common. Sneezing and coughing in crowds exposes everyone nearby to infection.

I get particularly angry about the dangerous and filthy habit of promiscuous spitting.

The health hazard of spitting is recognized by municipal governments and health authorities almost everywhere. Spitting in street cars, elevated trains and similar public places is generally prohibited by ordinance, and violation is subject to fine. This is because health authorities recognize that diseases are spread in this manner.

Such laws are too frequently ignored. Anyone walking the streets can see for himself how often they are disregarded.

Most people surely do not intend to put the health of others in danger in this way. But the result is just as bad as if they did.

Spit contains millions of germs or viruses. A person who steps on the spot where someone else has just spit carries the germs into the office, the home, or wherever else he is going.

The germs do not die when the sticky spit dries. Indeed, after drying, the germs can be picked up by the air and breathed into the nose, throat or lungs more easily than before.

This is one important way by which diseases are carried from one person to another.

Spitting, at best, is ugly to look at. It is also a real health hazard.

A more strict enforcement of city ordinances and a campaign of education against spitting would certainly cut down at least some of the colds and other infections which are spread in this way.

Cleansing tissue or a handkerchief could and should be used when needed.

Spitting ought to be completely avoided in public places.

What They Say

HENRY S. CAULFIELD Governor of Missouri 1928-32—Proposed Constitutional Amendment No. 1 goes much too far in my opinion. While the legislature should have an opportunity to consider any veto it might wish, this could be accomplished without going to the extreme of a mandatory special session of the legislature every time there has been a veto, regardless of the significance of the veto. Then there is the added fault in this provision which requires all vetoes that are returned in the last part of a regular session to come before the mandatory session instead of being considered during the regular session as is now possible.

The legislature could be assured of a chance to consider vetoes returned after adjournment without going to these lengths.

Another of the objectionable features of the proposed amendment is that it combines four provisions in a single measure so the voter cannot choose among them. He must vote for or against the entire

Woman With the Steely Eyes Is Always an Enigma

You may see her anywhere—the woman with the steely eyes.

She may look right through you without a smile or a nod when you stop to hold a door for her because her arms are laden with bundles, or when you make room for her to sit beside you in a crowded waiting room.

She may take your money in a store or your order in a restaurant, those steely eyes saying quite plainly that for her you don't exist as a person.

She may be a receptionist in a fancy office. And she may act as though her job were to scare you out instead of to invite you in.

She may be a guest who is busy looking for bigger game. Anyone less than a celebrity or the guest, she looks through like a wall of glass.

She may be the woman to whom you have just acknowledged an introduction. Because your name doesn't ring a bell in her mind she scarcely seems to see you at all.

She may be a guest in your own home, coldly appraising everything in the house but scarcely seeing the people in it.

She may be a business woman, or a young girl, or a housewife, or an older woman.

But no matter who she is, all that you notice are those hard, steely, disinterested eyes.

A woman's eyes can reflect so much—the warmth of sympathy, the sparkle of laughter, the softness of compassion, the aliveness that comes from interest in others and the world about her. Why does any woman ever let her eyes draw a steely curtain between her and the rest of the world?

Odds and Ends
By News Staff

IT WAS FRIDAY NIGHT and two women had gone downtown to do a little shopping. They had parked at Sixth and Osage and had gone almost the entire length of the shopping district on Ohio, stopping in several stores, going upstairs and downstairs in some of them. When they were returning to the car, one remarked to the other: "I don't know what makes my feet hurt so tonight."

They kept on going and as they were within a few steps of the car, she made another comment: "There must be a change in the weather coming. I have never had my feet hurt so bad as they do tonight. Do yours hurt?"

Her friend told her her feet felt fine, didn't hurt a bit.

"Well, I just don't know what the matter is with my feet," the woman said. "I can hardly walk," and the first thing she did when she got home was to kick those shoes off.

The next morning the woman received a call from the shoe repair man. In some manner the shoes got mixed up. The two pairs were just identical, except for size and he had given her the wrong shoes. So all evening long she had been walking around in somebody else's shoes.—H.L.

THE TEENAGE BOY had stayed all night with another boy and not wanting to miss Sunday School, set the alarm clock. When it went off he turned it off quickly, got up and dressed, then started out without disturbing the rest of the household.

There is a quietness about Sunday morning anyway, but the boy felt this was an unusual quietness when he reached Ohio. It was certainly a deserted street. He went to the church and there was no one there. He checked on the time and found he was an hour early—he had set the clock wrong. Well, there he was, all dressed up and no place to go, at least for an hour, so he just wandered up and down Ohio feeling very unnecessary, and was he ever glad when the time came for the church doors to open so he could go in.—H.L.

A FEW DAYS after school started this year, there was the usual fire drill but one little girl in the first grade refused to take part in it.

That afternoon when she went home from school she informed her mother she didn't want to go to Broadway School, she wanted to go to some other school.

"Why don't you, want to go to Broadway school?" questioned her mother.

"Because," replied the child, "they are going to burn it down." —H.L.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

Although fall brings brilliant colors to the landscape there is something sad about the end of summer. The autumn air is clean. The fragrance of burning leaves is not unpleasant. The skies are blue. Many of the features of autumn are exhilarating.

In spite of these uplifting factors we still have moments when we feel "blue." The birds are leaving. Plants are dying. Animals are preparing for winter when food and shelter will be at a premium. Human beings also prepare for the barrenness of winter in their peculiar way.

They buy warmer clothing. They clean out the furnaces. They caulk the windows. People prepare to be "snug" instead of feeling a part of the "wide open." Children are confined to the routine of school. Life is different.

We cannot entirely explain our periods of despondency, except that we feel cramped, closed in and limited in our physical freedom. In the summer we have lived more in the temple of the out-of-doors which was created not by man, but by God. In the winter we are confined in man-made domiciles.

Man has created comfort and beauty which are very satisfying, but not as awe inspiring as the creations of the Supreme being. Many men can make a wall, a roof, a fireplace, or an electric light. Only God can make a tree, a mountain, a blue sky or a blade of grass.

In our moments of unhappiness we must learn to pray and look on the face of God in our own minds instead of in the openness of nature.

GOAL

OUR YEAR OF DECISION

The year 1956 is the year of decision for Sedalia and Pettis County so far as the United Fund is concerned. Either a "united campaign" . . . one drive to raise the amount necessary for the operation of 19 worthy agencies . . . is desired and preferred by the citizens of this City and County or it isn't. If it is desirable . . . and presumably it is . . . then it must be supported realistically and completely. Above all, it must be successful, its goal reached or over-subscribed.

The participating agencies have joined this campaign because they have confidence in the United Fund to accomplish its objective, to provide the amount necessary so each of these agencies may do its particular job. Certainly they cannot be expected to continue entrusting the raising of their needed funds to a program which does not fulfill its mission. There is always the alternative, that unless these agencies can depend upon the United Fund way, the easy way of one drive instead of many, they may find it more attractive to revert to the outmoded practice of conducting individual drives in future years.

The United Fund way is the logical way. It is convenient. It is efficient. It is the accepted modern method for business, commerce, industry and the private citizens of a community to do their just part . . . their "fair share" . . . to help those who need assistance, those agencies which, through organization, experience and know how, perform the multitude of necessary services which individuals cannot.

The worth, the merit and the justification of "many campaigns in one" has been recognized throughout the nation. United Fund is not on trial. It has proven its benefits wherever business and private citizens have wanted it badly enough to support it realistically. This is our Year of Decision. Do YOU want the United Fund plan for Sedalia and Pettis County? If so, United Fund must have your support. The $75,000.00 goal must be reached, and passed.

STANDARD OF GIVING CHART

Salaried and/or Hourly Employees

The standard of giving basis for contributing to a United Fund campaign is generally the amount equal to "one hours pay per month for twelve months." This chart is for your convenience; it shows at a glance the "fair share" amount to be considered.

Fair Share Contribution
Hourly Pay Scale	Annual	Monthly	Weekly
$4.00	$48.00	$4.00	$.93
3.75	45.00	3.75	.87
3.50	42.00	3.50	.81
3.25	39.00	3.25	.75
3.00	36.00	3.00	.70
2.75	33.00	2.75	.64
2.50	30.00	2.50	.58
2.25	27.00	2.25	.52
2.00	24.00	2.00	.47
1.75	21.00	1.75	.41
1.50	18.00	1.50	.35
1.25	15.00	1.25	.29

Installment giving is based on the same logical and practical concept as installment buying. Few of us find it convenient to wait for the things we need and want until we can "pay cash or purchase out of pocket." By the same yardstick it is far more convenient, and realistic to give out of income over a period of time. Installment giving is the way to do one's "fair share" . . . and it is even easier through payroll deduction. And, of course, all contributions to United Funds are tax deductible.

THE PLAN OF SOLICITATION

Every effort has been made in organizing our 1956 campaign to provide maximum opportunity to participate with minimum inconvenience. Business and industry have reached a new high in cooperation by making payroll deduction contributing possible on a scale never before available. The United Fund organization is deeply grateful and appreciative.

There are three soliciting groups; the Advance Gifts Division, which will handle the larger business and industry; the Men's Division, which will solicit all other business and professional prospects; and the Women's Division, which will be responsible for house-to-house "homemaker" solicitation.

The "Unit System" will be used by the Advance Gifts and Men's Divisions. Under this method, each business or company is a single unit, composed of three groups; the company itself, its executives, and its employees. Each solicitor will handle a specified number of units. Solicitation of a unit will not be complete until all components involved have been contacted. Thus, all persons associated with any individual business, whether as owner, executive or employee, will be part of that particular unit and will be requested to contribute therein. This will greatly facilitate the orderly and cohesive handling of solicitation, and will materially reduce waste motion and wasted time consumed by callbacks and duplication of effort.

One point should be made clear concerning unit solicitation. Every employed person is asked to consider the "one hours pay per month for one year" standard of giving equation as the basis for his or her own contribution. Thus, in those cases where a husband and wife are both employed, the "family contribution" by one is not applicable. Each and every employed person is asked to consider a personal contribution, based on the above quoted formula. This is the "fair share way" . . . but it can work only if each of us does his share to make it work.

Sooners May Be Lagging At the Polls

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It's still Oklahoma No. 1 in college football but the Sooners, unmatched record and all, may find themselves lagging at the polls in a few days simply because their chief rival, Michigan State, gets first crack at Notre Dame.

Michigan State, getting its support from those who place schedule over statistics, pulled up to within 25 points of Oklahoma in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters despite the Sooners' winning streak of 33 games.

For Michigan State, a 53-6 winner over Indiana, the result of the new balloting was a gain of 95 points on Oklahoma, which whitewashed Texas 45-0 after thrashings of North Carolina and Kansas State.

In the total standings, with points awarded on the basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second, etc., Oklahoma led with 1,173 to 1,148 for Michigan State. Between them, they drew 111 of 131 first-place ballots, 67 for the Sooners.

Only one major change turned up in the weekly accounting, Michigan moving back into the top 10 at the No. 8 position after routing Army 48-14. Texas A&M gave way dropping from ninth to 14th.

Georgia Tech held on to third and Texas Christian remained in the fourth. The rest of the lineup was Ohio State, Mississippi, Tennessee, Michigan, Southern California and Baylor.

The top 10 with first-place votes in parentheses:

1. Oklahoma (67).....	1,173
2. Michigan State (45).....	1,148
3. Georgia Tech (5).....	900
4. Texas Christian (2).....	751
5. Ohio State.....	721

Moniteau Dog Association Holds Hunt

Although there was a scarcity of bird dogs, there were more fox and coon dogs shown at the Moniteau County Fox, Coon and Bird Dog Association annual hunt than ever before. The hunt was held at the John Turpin farm south-east of Tipton with 70 dogs shown in both the fox and coon dog classes.

Quincy Cox, Fortuna, judged the fox and bird dogs and the coon dogs were judged by Orville Keetly, Sedalia.

A pet parade was held the first night with prizes going to Jackie Luna, Tipton, first; Judy Kuhn, Jamestown, second; and Brenda Fann, Prairie Home, third.

The coon dog show was also held the first night. Awards were made as follows:

Puppy class: Clay Powell, California; and J. R. McDonald, Clarksburg, first, second and third.

Derby, males: Fred Luna, Tipton, first; Sherman Kaiser, Tipton, second; A. B. Schlup, Latham, third.

Derby, females: A. B. Schlup, Latham, first; Ed Branch and Sherman Kaiser, both of Tipton, second; Clarence Kuhn, Jamestown, third.

All age males: Eugene Wycoff, Jamestown, first and second; Jim Schreck, Tipton, third.

All age females: Clay Powell, California, first; J. E. Chamberlin, Versailles, second; Herschel Bremer, Sedalia, third.

Best pair: John Turpin, Clarksburg, first.

Best pack: Clay Powell, California, and J. R. McDonald, Clarksburg, first.

Best of show: Eugene Eycliff, Jamestown, first.

The following awards were won in the fox dog show the next night:

Derby: Claude Hunt, Franklin, first.

All age female: Bud Cary, Jr., Tipton, first.

All age male: Claude Hunt, Franklin, first.

Grand champion: Bud Cary Jr., Tipton, first.

Mike Fetchick Wins Western Golf Tourney

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "That was the toughest round of golf I ever played," said 205-pound Mike Fetchick after decisively winning the $5,000 top prize in the Western Open Tournament in a playoff with three other pros.

"I didn't tie up, but I have to admit there was a little butterfly in my stomach," he declared yesterday after shooting a 6-under-par 66, five strokes better than any of his opponents. "I've had lower scores, but no round was ever harder."

Second place—just a matter of prestige since the three others all received $2,000—went to Jay Herbert, 33, from Lafayette, La., representing Sanford, Fla. He carded a 71.

Next came Doug Ford, playing out of Fetchick's home town of Yonkers, N.Y., with a 72. Don January, the 26-year-old cormer from Lampasas, Tex., finished with a 75 over the 6,496-yard Presidio course.

Fetchick fired seven birdies and went over par on only one hole, the eighth, when he seemed to baby an approach from the tall grass on the fringe of the green. His longest birdie putt was 25 feet.

Orioles Give Paul Richards An Extension

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles have given Paul Richards an extended lease on the driver's seat, but they plan to get him a co-pilot.

The club directors huddled with Richards yesterday and then announced his contract as "manager-general manager" had been extended two years, through the 1959 season.

"We feel that this action reaffirms the board's unanimous confidence in Mr. Richards and expresses our full satisfaction in the demonstrated growth of the Orioles under his direction."

As for the co-pilot, they said, "... we hope in the near future to engage the services of an able executive to act as executive vice president. In such capacity he will work jointly with the president and the board and Mr. Richards."

"His duties will be to direct and coordinate all administrative and executive affairs in the front office."

"As in the past, Mr. Richards will continue to have full jurisdiction over all player personnel, both on the Baltimore club and throughout our farm organization."

President James Keetly said the contract extension calls for a continuation of Richards' present salary, reported to be $40,000 to $45,000 a year.

Richards was hired two years ago after the Orioles—in their first year in Baltimore—had finished in the American League cellar under Jimmy Dykes. The former

Secret Report Hits Athletic Aid Practices

CHICAGO (AP) — In a frank and self-critical report which was meant to be a secret within the Big Ten, a special conference committee ripped into athletic aid practices with a warning that the Western Conference could someday become a farm system for professional sports.

The report, disclosed yesterday was drafted by a committee set up last December and headed by Commissioner K. L. (Tug) Wilson, and called work-a-day programs for athletes "an invitation to hypocrisy and deceit."

It added that financial help to athletes had reached "staggering proportions."

The two-part, 24-page report was put together by Wilson; Asst. Commissioner Bill Reed; Michigan Athletic Director Fritz Crisler; Wisconsin Athletic Director Ivy Williamson; and faculty representatives Leslie W. Scott of Michigan State and Verne C. Freeman of Purdue.

Wilson said the report was intended solely for private distribution within the Big Ten and it had been released because of a proposed publication of a paraphrase in a national magazine.

Under the facts section, the report criticizes the "offer" system and runs right on through recruiting and subsidization.

"Each conference school," the report states, "is on a definite 'offer' basis, meaning that the recruitment activity... is accompanied by financial assistance, parried by financial assistance (promised work and/or scholarship)."

"The scope of financial subsidies to conference athletes, earned and unearned (scholarships), has increased in staggering proportions in the past decade... from $47 in 1948 to $260 in 1955 (average amount of aid per athlete)..."

"The work-a-day program has developed purposefully as a subsidization device under the 'offer system' and limitations upon unearned aid... as such it is an invitation to hypocrisy and deceit unless there is complete insistence upon full work for compensation received, and there is not."

New Repair Method

MALESTER, Okla. (AP) — Dr. O. W. Rice found a new way to repair his watch.

His 2-year-old watch stopped running and a jeweler told him it would cost about as much to repair it as to buy a new one.

Dr. Rice decided against the operation but several days later he accidentally dropped the watch on the concrete pavement.

When he picked it up, it was running and has been keeping good time ever since.

The Pimlico Special has been won by such turf champions as Seabiscuit, War Admiral, Citation, Whirlaway, Tom Fool, Market Wise, Armed, Assault and Sailor. The race dates back to 1937.

Phil Silvers Keeps Show On the Move

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP) — Phil Silvers, well launched on his sophomore year of television on CBS-TV, is fulfilling the promise he showed as a freshman.

Under the aegis of writer Nat Hiken, Silvers refuses to become stereotyped in what easily could be the most monotonous comedy routine conceivable: as Army Sgt. Ernie Bilko.

Some viewers insist that the Phil Silvers show is at its best when Bilko and his platoon are on the post at Fort Baxter. But barracks life can pall on a TV audience as much as on a soldier. So Silvers wisely shifts his scenes and situations.

Last Tuesday, for example, brought a delightful situation based on the efforts of Bilko and a couple of buddies to obtain tickets to that most publicized and sold-out of Broadway shows, "My Fair Lady." In effective counterpoint to the development of the "My Fair Lady" plot, which was telephoned to Bilko from time to time by a pal in the theater box office, our favorite sergeant developed his own Pygmalion in the person of a young Italian girl.

Coincidentally, five TV comedians have tried their hands in the past three weeks at the how-hard-to-get-Broadway tickets routine. Only Silvers succeeded in achieving good comedy from the situation.

Ark" (NBC-TV) time to float for a while. But this Jack Webb production is still leaking badly and should be beached for repairs.

Herb Shriner is shaping a pleasant, entertaining show on CBS-TV.

He sets a leisurely pace and conveys a hoosier wit and homeliness. To one viewer he's at his best when his wit is sharp instead of broad.

Red Skelton is back on CBS-TV. If you liked him last season, you'll find his formula unchanged.

Finds Boa Constrictor In Basement of Store

NEW YORK (AP)—A fugitive boa constrictor named Bobo was found curled up in the basement of a Bronx supermarket yesterday.

The nine-foot serpent had slithered out of its cage in a pet shop next door last August.

Isidore Sohn, 36, found Bobo when he went down to the market basement for a can of pickles.

"I was petrified when I saw it," he said. "It just lay there sticking its tongue out at me."

Bobo was thin from lack of food. Dr. James A. Oliver, curator of reptiles at the Bronx Zoo, took the snake to the zoo with the approval of pet shop owner Nathan Kornhauser.
